WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4, 1895. The United States, on the 2nd inst., added another new ocean warrior to our present magnificent fleet. The Cruiser "Brooklyn," the latest addition to, and probably the fastest and most powerful of the fleet of flag defenders, was launched from Cramp's ship yard in Philadelphia under most auspicious circumstances.

On the 2nd, in the afternoon, the order detaching Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles to command the Army of the United States, went into effect. Gen. Miles succeeds Gen. Schofield who has just been retired on account of the age limit. Maj. Gen. Francis H. Ruger is assigned to the command of the Department of the East.

The old cracked Liberty Bell, which will be exhibited at the Atlanta, Ga., Exposition, was removed from Independence Hall yesterday, and will pass through this city this afternoon on its way south. It will be tendered an ovation here as a military escort has been ordered out and the Marine Band will furnish the music.

A report has been received here recently that Viceroy Liu, the Chinese Ruler, has been degraded as a punishment for failing to protect missionaries. He is not to hold office again. This is a warning to all others that may be disposed to do wrong.

The Eastern question is again to the front. It seems to be Russia's purpose to predominate in Asia, and it is likely to cause trouble. Japan, of course, has to face it. From an interview with Minister Kato at London it appears that there is no desire to irritate the Russian Bear. Port Arthur, however, is not likely to be ceded.

Children of the eastern land, where your farms are spoiled, leave the wastes of barren sands, where your fathers toiled; leave the rivers and the hills, leave your worn and rocky hills, where the harvest grows; take it, it is best; journey to the Oklahoma land, in the golden west. Ye whose coffers gleam with gold burdened with the ore, come where it will soon be rolled into millions more; come where land is selling cheap, come ye favored few, and a harvest ye shall reap as ye never knew; leave your railway bonds and stocks, leave them to their rest, walk as every wise man walks, to the golden west. Maidens in the hills of Maine, maidens with golden hair, come where the grassy plain stretches everywhere; come where marriage fees are small, houses cheap to rent, and a husband smooth and tall will not cost a cent. Husbands through the western plain, till you cannot rest; therefore take the quickest train to the golden west. Westward come! Here thou may in very truth, in a country roam, where your hollow breast will swell, swell with healthy breath, and you'll ring a chestnut bell on the form of death. Hither come and upward grow, here your dimes invest, and you'll never leave the golden west. Ancient man, with hoary hair, in a world of gloom, looking down with solemn stare, downward to the tomb, you can live for many years, in a land of sun, if you'll cast aside your fears, and to Oklahoma come; here you'll grow and fatten soon, till you fill your vest. Come then, ere the leafy June, to the golden west.—Barbora News.

DREADFUL PSORIASIS

Covering Entire Body with White Scales. Suffering Fearful. Cured by Cuticura. My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes, and the physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one scab. It covered my entire body, my face, head, and shoulders being the worst. The white scales fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDY, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the REMEDY. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight. Mrs. ROSA KELLY, Rockwell City, Iowa.
